FUN SPRINGTIME EATING AND DRINKING AT HOTEL IRVINE

Including a Cinco de Mayo Party, Tequila/Mezcal Tasting Dinner, New Fireside Party on the Patio, New Friday Night Date Dining, Happy, Happy Hours and More

IRVINE, Calif. (April 3, 2019) – At SoCal lifestyle ultra-fun Hotel Irvine, its spring seasonal culinary line-up offers special events and turns every night into merry-making for visiting guests, local regulars and new-to-the-party singles, dates and groups of friends. A bueno Cinco de Mayo fiesta competes with a Best Sombrero Contest and piñata. For tequila aficionados, there's a special Five-Course Pairing Dinner, and for pure weekend relaxation, guests fireside on the EATS Kitchen & Bar patio can savor time with their gang – with reasonably priced bites, beverages and live music. New for Friday Date Night is a special dinner option complete with a bottle of vino. Also, everyone's favorite Happy Hours at EATS and Red Bar and Lounge, Taco Tuesday and Whiskey Wednesday, along with Good EATS Brunch on Saturdays and Sundays return for the best of springtime pleasures.

Cinco de Mayo Fiesta at Red Bar and Lounge

Sunday, May 5, from 3 p.m. to midnight

Feliz Cinco de Mayo, and it's party time at Red Bar and Lounge with $5 (cinco) house margaritas and a complimentary salsa, guacamole and chip bar available from 5 to 10 p.m. – ole! Guests should grab their hats for the Best Sombrero Contest and compete for prizes. Anyone who wears a sombrero gets a chance to take a swing at the piñata. Happy faces and pals are invited to the photo booth. All will chill with a local DJ from 6 to 10 p.m.

Pricing excludes taxes and gratuity.
